INTRODUCTION

Public speaking is understood as technique delivery order ahead public, personally science public speaking is part from knowledge communication, thing this is because communication is an interaction process for relate from one party to party another. (Girsang, 2018). Like known, public speaking is understood as technique delivery order ahead public. by science, public speaking alone is part from knowledge communication. This thing because communication is an interaction process for relate from one party to party other. If you look at from track history, then the beginning of the communication process takes place very simply, that is started from a number of abstract ideas/thoughts in brain somebody for looking for data/submit information, then packed Becomes a message. Message the then could be delivered good by direct nor no straight away, (Lies, 2018).

With communicate in front of audience many are known as public speaking. Moment In this case, public speaking is one of the ability absolutely necessary in the global era. Hal the triggered by the demands of the times and existing technology now this is forcing individual for can compete increase quality self. Place importance public speaking skills miss from the definition of public speaking alone. by etymologically, public speaking consists of on “public” which means to who our will speak; while “speaking” means how method convey her” (Usman, 2019).
